

Heavy Civil Superintendent

As a Superintendent, you will schedule, coordinate and supervise activities of workers (laborers, operators, carpenters, subcontractors, etc.) engaged on designated project.

- Promote and enforce craft and subcontractors compliance with project safety program requirements; document and ensure corrective measures are implemented
- Mentor and coach foremen as it relates to company policies and procedures and work requirements
- Conduct and/or direct project safety meetings
- Supervise foremen assigned to area of responsibility and provide liaison between field engineering, estimating, and crafts to ensure compliance of construction with drawings and specifications
- Plan, direct and supervise workers engaged in heavy highway or civil construction. Activities include planning, organizing, directing and controlling methods of construction, manpower levels, material quantities equipment, work schedule and reviewing documentations
- Coordinate assigned work with work of different crafts, company departments, or other contractors
- Inspects work areas to determine type of work required and materials and equipment to be used May coordinate with equipment superintendent to insure constant flow of materials
- Ensures that workers are supplied with tools, materials and equipment for completion of project
- Assist in jobsite setup
- Resolve construction problems (lack of productivity, work interfaces, etc.) as required
- Ensures workers for each task are fully qualified to perform assigned duties
- Coordinating sub-contractors onsite
- Perform additional assignments per management's direction

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's Degree in a related field from an accredited institution and 3 years of construction field experience and/or training
- Or 5 years of heavy highway or civil construction related experience and/or training
- Advanced knowledge of tool & equipment safety

Please send your resume to Megan Peterson at m.peterson@nbed.co or call at 360-464-2893 with any questions.